

Dear Parents and Children,

We know how much you love and value learning so we want to keep your minds as busy as possible while you remain at home. The learning activities have been carefully selected by your teacher to enable you to practise and improve skills you have been taught in your lessons this year.

Here is your first weekly timetable with some suggested activities and timings. We know you will work hard, challenge yourself and be the very best you can be!

23 rd – 27 th March	Morning			Afternoon
	Maths	Reading	Writing / SPaG	Other challenges
Suggested Timings	At least 30 minutes	At least 30 minutes	At least 30 minutes	Theme of the week: The Vikings 1) Create a timeline of the key events. 2) Make a poster to explain the reasons why the Vikings left their homelands. 3) Write a short speech as a Viking warrior to persuade your friends and families to come join you in Britain. Can you record it? You might want to video yourself! 4) Sketch a map of the places the Vikings travelled to and show the routes. 5) Write a poem about the Viking raids. 6) Read Curriculum Visions and create a quiz. 7) Write a short story based at the time of the Vikings. 8) Plan a Viking raid! Plan a secret message to your other fellow warriors, giving details of your meeting point and how to carry out your attack using writing, drawing and diagrams to show your plan. 9) Draw a portrait of two key characters in Viking history: Edward the Confessor and Alfred the Great. 10) Get crafty: make a Viking longship.

What you can expect with us?

- Each Monday, we will send you one of these timetables, which links to the resources in the pack you have received.

What we expect of you

- The same incredible level of effort and engagement with learning that we see at school.

- Every weekday, class teachers will send two messages with reminders and updates about your daily learning.
- To keep you motivated, we will also send individual messages to celebrate effort and achievements we have seen on IXL, Bug Club and Oddizzi.
- The learning set out above to be completed on the suggested day, sticking to approximate timings. (Of course, we know many of you will go far beyond this!)
- Presentation to be proud of – books cared for like in school and resources well looked after.

When we return to school, we are really looking forward to sharing and celebrating your achievements and creativity with your classmates.
