

Dear Parents and Children,

I hope you all had an amazing and relaxing half term. Here is your new weekly home learning timetable. Please continue your routine by trying some maths first thing, either in your work book or by using the White Rose website: <https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/year-2/> Please scroll down to the bottom and click on summer 1, week 2. Secondly, log onto Bug Club every day and read our weekly book and once a week please do record yourself reading a story and share on Seesaw. Lastly, spend the week completing a piece of writing you can share this with me on Seesaw too! If you have collected your new pack you now have a new maths work book (please don't start until prompted). You also have a science work book and a geography activity and study book. Please follow timetable to know which sections to complete. The other challenges are optional. Enjoy!

	Maths	Reading	Spag	Writing
Suggested Timings	At least 30 minutes Maths no problem Or White Rose	At least 30 minutes (The School Quiz) Log onto Bug Club, click 'my stuff', click 'independent', then scroll to end.	At least 15 minutes Spelling book A: unit 9 – the suffix -ing (2) Spelling book B: unit 9 – words ending in -el	At least 30 minutes (Write a quiz) This week we have been reading a play all about quizzes so I would now like you to write a list of quiz questions. Remember you will need to know the answers to all the questions you list.	Other challenges Each afternoon, please select one or more of the following challenges to enjoy.
Mon	Worksheet 1 (page 155-158) Or White Rose sum 1, wk2 – lesson 1 – Compare lengths	(pages 2-7) What does QM stand for? How many characters are in this play? What is different about the lay-out of this book?	Spelling zone Book 2A: page 34 Book 2B: page 30	Plan - You will need to think and write at least ten questions about your chosen subject. What do you want your questions to be all about? (could be maths questions, questions all about the UK or Uganda, questions about your favourite football team or programme, questions about you, a class mate or a teacher. Or, maybe you can think of something more exciting to base your questions on).	Get Creative Write a short play for you and your family to perform. Share one of your special talents with us on Seesaw, for our very own Year Two's Got Talent. Make your very own ice lollies: https://www.goodtoknow.co.uk/recipes/banana-and-yogurt-ice-pops
Tues	Worksheet 2 (page 159-162) Or White Rose sum 1, wk2 – lesson 2 – Order lengths	(Pages 8-11) What is the name of the white garden flower? What does Bee call the blue team? What does 'my minds gone blank' mean?	Dots and dashes Book 2A: page 35 Book 2B: page 31	Research - Every good quiz master not only comes up with great questions, but they also may know the answers to all the questions they ask. So today you will need to research your subject and find out facts. Try and find out at least 10 interesting facts and write them down. These facts will later become your answers to your questions.	Geography – The United Kingdom Read pages 2-4 in your United Kingdom study book. Then complete pages 2-5 in your United Kingdom activity book.
Wed	Worksheet 3 (page 163-164) Or White Rose sum 1, wk2 – lesson 3 - Four operations with length	(pages 12-17) What does Dee think of the quiz? Name one difference between Bee and Dee. How did red team manage to win back points?	Word changers Book 2A: page 35 Book 2B: page 31	Write your questions - Yesterday you spent time researching your chosen subject. Today you are going to use those facts to come up with a question. For example if my chosen subject was Springfield and the fact that I found out was that the head teacher's name is Ms Fiona Judge. Then, my first question could be: what is the head teacher's name at Springfield school?	Science – Germination Read and complete section 1 in your KS1 science, year 2 workout, CGP book.
Thur	Worksheet 4 (page 165-166) Or White Rose sum 1, wk2 – lesson 4 – problem solving	(pages 18-20 + 'act it' activity on back page) 1. How many points do red team win by? 2. How do you think blue team are feeling? 3. How do you think red team are feeling?	Make a sentence - Using 5 of the words in word changers. Write these in your writing book.	Edit and rewrite - Did you come up with some exciting questions yesterday? I bet you did! Today you will need to read through your questions and check that you have the correct spellings and your questions make sense. Also have you remembered your capital letters, commas and question marks? After, please spend time rewriting your questions up neatly and on the other side of the paper write down the answers.
